Join us

Royal Ascot is the pinnacle of the racing world. Australian's are drawn to what is one of the world's most significant racing events and we invite you to experience this fabulous tour. We were privileged in 2015 to enjoy the thrill of having our own runner in Brazen Beau and we invite you to share the experience with us in 2017...

In 2017 we look forward to bringing a small group of 20 guests to experience Royal Ascot. We will take in three of the leading days of racing action at Royal Ascot. Each day we will have reserved seats in three different prime dining areas with full lunch and beverages included. This will include Royal Enclosure on the final day of the carnival.

The group will spend the first part of the tour in beautiful Newmarket. This will enable us to take in the wonderful atmosphere of this beautiful village, home to the United Kingdom's best racing stables and historic studs. Included in our visit to Newmarket will be personal tours of Luca Cumani's stables, Dalham Hall Stud (the UK base of our own Brazen Beau) and Banstead Manor Stud (the home of Frankel). The group will enjoy a welcome dinner at the historic Palace House Mansion.

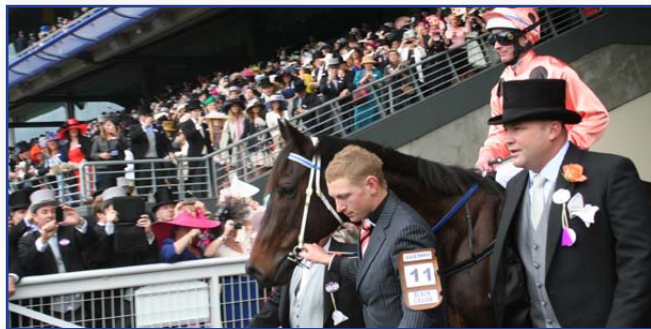

The second part of the tour will see us based at the recently refurbished Sheraton Park Lane. Centrally located in Mayfair, well placed within walking distance to Regent Street and Buckingham Palace. Our farewell dinner will be another highlight, this year we will be dining at Aqua, a high class restaurant perched high above London in the iconic 'Shard'. We again look forward to High Tea at the Ritz, as well as visits to world class Milliners for the ladies.

As with all of our tours, we are offering Land Only Packages which enables guests to arrange their own flights and link in with the tour. We recommend our guests take the Dubai Stopover Option. This provides 16 nights of accommodation and breaks up both legs of the journey with luxurious 5 star accommodation in Dubai.

I hope you can join us on what will be a memorable tour.

Royal Ascot Overview

ABOUT ASCOT RACECOURSE

Ascot Racecourse is situated in beautiful wooded countryside adjoining Windsor Great Park and about a 50 minute drive or train journey from London. The racecourse underwent a 200 million pound redevelopment in 2006. In 2011 Ascot celebrated its 300th year and is widely regarded as one of the world's most famous racecourses.

ROYAL ASCOT OVERVIEW

Royal Ascot is a national institution and the centrepiece of the British social calendar. Each year, for the third week in June, tradition, pageantry, fashion and style combine at one of the most beautiful settings in the country.

The quality of the racing at Royal Ascot is simply outstanding, with nearly £4 million in prize money on offer and a total of eighteen 'Group' races over the five days.

Each day follows the same format with The Royal Procession making its way from the Golden Gates, along the racecourse and into the Parade Ring from 2.00pm each afternoon. The first race of six each day is at 2.30pm and the last race is at 5.35pm, after which racegoers are invited to celebrate their winnings as they sing traditional favourites, and a few new ones, around the bandstand.

Tuesday (Day 1): Included in tour

The opening day of what is sure to be a spectacular Royal Meeting gets off to a flying start with three Group 1 races; the Queen Anne Stakes, the King's Stand Stakes - the first British leg of the Global Sprint Challenge - and the St James's Palace Stakes. This day usually features the appearance of some of our best sprinters. Aussie winners of the King's Stand have included Scenic Blast, Miss Andretti, Takeover Target and Choisir.

Wednesday (Day 2): Optional

The highlight of the second day is the Group 1 Prince of Wales's Stakes, arguably the most important race at the Royal Meeting in the modern era with £400,000 prize money on offer. Also on the card are the Group 2 Windsor Forest Stakes, for older female milers and the Group 2 Queen Mary Stakes, for the best up and coming two year old fillies (females). Recent notable Prince of Wales Stakes winners include Dubai Millenium, Ouija Board, Duke of Marmalade and the ill-fated Rewilding who defeated So You Think in 2011.

Thursday (Day 3): Included in tour

Thursday's highlight is the Group 1 Gold Cup, a battle of stamina and determination over two miles and four furlongs - this undisputed long distance world championship is not for the faint hearted! Style, elegance and the height of the summer social calendar all combine on Gold Cup Day, colloquially known as 'Ladies' Day'. Although the whole week of Royal Ascot is a fashion show like no other, it is Thursday when the designer creations and millinery masterpieces reach new heights.

Friday (Day 4): Optional

The feature race on Friday is the Coronation Stakes, which traditionally brings together the leading three-year-old fillies in Europe. Also on the card is the King Edward VII Stakes, colloquially called the 'Ascot Derby,' as its conditions mirror those of the Epsom Classic.

Saturday (Day 5): Included in tour (Royal Enclosure)

The final day of the Royal Meeting always provides a dramatic climax and features one of the world's most important and international races, the Golden Jubilee Stakes, - the second British leg of the Global Sprint Challenge. The Aussie sprinters who run on Day 1 often reappear in the Golden Jubilee. Australian sprinter Choisir triumphed in 2003 whilst his son Starspangledbanner was victorious in 2010.
